

Recap of the 2019 Texas Aquatic Plant Management Society Annual Conference

We would like to thank all the presenters, sponsors, and attendees that made the 2019 TAPMS meeting a success! Below are a few highlights from the meeting and a list of our sponsors. We look forward to the upcoming 2020 joint meeting with the Aquatic Plant Management Society in San Antonio, Texas from July 19-22. More information on the 2020 meeting will be available soon!

Mark Heilman, APMS president, presented over APMS updates. He encouraged society members to highlight their successful stories in aquatic plant management on social media and emphasized the importance of increasing student interest and funding opportunities within the society.

Presenters included Dr. Lyn Gettys (far right) and several of her students, who were also recipients of TAPMS student awards. Joseph Sigmon (second from the left) was awarded best student presentation. Ian Markovich (middle) was awarded the master's student scholarship and Mohsen Tootoonchi (second from the left) was the recipient of the PHD student scholarship.

Past president, Brad Vollmar, presented 2019 TAPMS president, Chris Smith, with a plaque recognizing the service Chris has dedicated to TAPMS the last several years.
